

GhostDraft Ready Forms Library with Wolters Kluwer Financial Services

Save time and money on form creation and maintenance utilizing the Wolters Kluwer Financial Services forms library along with your GhostDraft customer communication management solution.

GhostDraft, an innovator in document automation and customer communications, has partnered with Wolters Kluwer Financial Services, a comprehensive regulatory compliance and risk management business, to provide users with GhostDraft ready forms. Wolters Kluwer Financial Services has the industry's largest library of regulatory forms, (including ISO, NCCI, AAIS, ACORD, etc), giving you immediate access to the content you need.

Wolters Kluwer Financial Services' Uniform Forms is a cost-effective solution for numerous insurance business situations:

- converting to a new core system
- adding a new LOB or adding new states
- upgrading to GhostDraft for customer communications management
- converting to a new document management system
- experiencing a time-sensitive forms implementation
- experiencing forms content maintenance and production delays

With Uniform Forms, you can achieve maximum value with your GhostDraft investment by accessing a ready to use forms library.

Uniform Forms provides you with several bottom-line advantages:

- access to the industry's largest library of regulatory forms
- standard form templates in electronic formats you can use, so your GhostDraft implementation is faster, lowering costs
- a seasoned staff, averaging 12 years' experience working with print output from a variety of industry-leading systems
- a licensed provider of ISO, NCCI, AAIS, and ACORD providing users both current and previous editions of policy language

Top benefits of using Uniform Forms with GhostDraft:

- access all P&C forms you need from one source including policy forms/endorsements, claim forms, auto id cards, etc.
- choose the document format you need
- increase compliance levels with standardized forms
- customize forms to your specific needs
- save time and money on form creation and maintenance
- receive automatic updates as forms change

Let's get started. There is no complicated process to follow - simply better results, right now. To find out how this partnership can help your business, contact GhostDraft at 855-776-2016.